

WOTA Marketing Packet and CD

The packet and CD is a marketing tool to use as part of a presentation to promote and to educate about OT services to:

- insurance companies • managed care providers • physicians • other allied health providers • law and policy makers • consumers • etc.

A full-color 13-page professional grade folder with facts, figures, and more, designed to help define OT in general and how we practice with the vast spectrum of individuals we serve. The attractive CD-ROM allows unlimited reproduction of the material presented in the folders.
